

Are you at the top of your game and want to work in a hospital of excellence?

We are looking to add a full-time veterinarian to our exceptional team to ensure we keep looking after our clients and their pets in the best possible way.

Why Us?

- Our mission is to be the ones setting the gold standard in staff care, client care and patient care!
- Our team has a robust continuous improvement culture and shared core values of Happiness, Excellence, Approachability, Reliability and Trust.
- We are a group that loves vet medicine. So many clinics make it hard to enjoy your job but not us. We run a professional hospital with loads of support staff that ensure you enjoy your job every day.
- We support our team to achieve their dreams, whether that be memberships, new skills or aspirations outside of the workplace.

About Us

- We are a thirty-year-old privately operated and owned practice in a brand new purpose-built hospital. Check out our website for a look at the best place to work ever. www.ttgvet.com.au
- You will be joining a big team of 9 veterinarians and 40 support staff. All of them are long-term employees and highly trained. We have excellent team retention.
- Our clients are well trained and strongly bonded.
- We practice high-quality medicine and surgery; we have strong relationships with local specialists and a lot of in-house skilled veterinarians (orthopaedics, feline, ultrasound and Dental)
- We have a positive social outreach program. We are the main veterinary provider for the Royal Society for the Blind and Guide dogs SA/NT. We also work with Safe Pets Safe families to care for the pets of vulnerable people.
- ISFM Cat-Friendly Gold Accreditation and ASAV Hospital of Excellence.

Don't just take my word for it though here's what one of our newest vets had to say

“Happiness and great workplace culture are highly regarded at TTG Vet. Open communication through all levels of management means the team is always on board with new decisions and feels valued in practice. I enjoy working at TTG Vet, and the experiences I have there have allowed me to become a better veterinarian.”

Dr Mitchell Graham DVM Uni of Adelaide Graduate.
